C VICTOR ORTIZ, popular pastor of the Mexican Baptist Mission in Hamlin, and his family are enjoying a vacation with relatives in Old Mexico.

We received a card from him mailed at Nuevo Laredo as he apparently was headed toward the interior.

Victor, who has worked hard through many difficulties, felt the call to preach when he was nearly 50 years of age. Despite the burden of a big family, he finished his education, attending Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene and took special training at a theological seminary in California.

As a civic minded citizen of Hamlin, a member of the Rotary Club, he has many friends among those of his race and the whites as well.

C THE LITTLE SQUIB below deserves repeating every once in a while, because new generations keep coming on that it may be news to . . .

Waitress—"Hawaii, sir. You must be Hungary."

Customer—"Yes, Siam, and I can't Rumania here very long. Venice lunch ready?"

Waitress—"I'll Russia to a table. What'll you have?"

Customer—"Anything Atoll, but can't Jamaica little speed?"

Waitress—"I don't think the cook can Fiji that fast, but Alaska."

Customer—"Never mind asking anyone. Just put a Cuba sugar in my Java."

Waitress—"Sweden it yourself. I'm only here to Serbia your meal."

Customer—"Denmark my bill and call the Cosporus. He'll probably Kenya. I don't Bolivia know who I am."

Waitress—"No, and I don't Caribbean. You sure Ararat."

Poss—"What's got India? Do you think this arguing Alps business?"

Customer—"Canada noise, too. Spain in the neck?"

C MICE AND CATS have always been a problem with some folks, but we never thought things would get this bad:

"Doctor, doctor," called Mr. Schultz frantically, "come quick. You know my wife sleeps with her mouth wide open, and just now a mouse ran down her throat."

"I'll be over in a few minutes," said the doctor. "Meanwhile try waving a piece of cheese in front of her mouth and maybe the mouse will come out."

When the doctor arrived, he found Schultz waving a six-pound flounder in front of the prostrate Mrs. Schultz's face.

"What's the idea?" asked the exasperated doctor. "I told you to wave a piece of cheese. Mice don't like flounders."

"I know, I know," gasped Schultz. "But we've got to get the cat out first."

D DIPLOMACY is considered both a virtue and frailty, depending on who is using it and how. For example . . .

Some children are adept at evasive answers to such an extent that they rate a diplomatic mission.

The story is told of little Jack who ran to his mother in the basement, and asked her to put some iodine on his knee. It was badly scratched.

Mother—"How did it happen?" Son—"I was climbing up on the pantry shelf and it broke and I hit my knee on the bottom shelf."

Mother—"What on earth were you doing up there?"

Son—"I was trying to get the glue so I could fix that big vase in the living room."

Mother—"Goodness! Did you break that?"

Son—"No, the golf ball did when it bounced off the mantle mirror."

Mother—"My heavens! Don't tell me you were playing golf in the living room."

Son—"No, I wasn't. I was outside in the yard and the ball went through the living room window."

GAMES TO BE FEATURED AT Neindia Thursday

USING CAUTION was one fellow's motto, even under unusual circumstances. For example . . .

An undertaker wired the man: "Your mother-in-law just died. Shall I bury, embalm or cremate her?"

And the guy wires back: "All three; take no chances."

ANOTHER IN THE SERIES of Mystery Farm Pictures being run by The Herald is shown above. First person, other than the owner and his family, to correctly identify the view will be given a one-year subscription to Your Home Town Paper. In order to give readers of the paper living on the rural routes an equal chance at the identifying, no answers will be accepted before 1:00 p. m. Friday, either in person or telephoning to the paper office. The original aerial picture will be presented to the owner by The Herald.

E. J. Hawkins Well Good for 244 Barrels

Another completion five miles west of Hamlin highlighted the oil activity of the Hamlin section of the past several days.

Potential was taken at Frank Pethbridge et al of Abilene No. 2 E. J. Hawkins well in the Royston (Canyon Sand) Field. Location is in Section 206, Block 1, B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey.

The well had a daily potential of 344.05 barrels of oil, flowing through a 24-64 inch choke. Production is from 40 perforations at 4,495 to 4,505 feet with casing set at 4,720 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 750 to one.

W. L. Boyd Enjoys Visits to Historic Old Spots Before Heading for Holy Land

Supreme enjoyment of W. L. Boyd, long-time Hamlin resident, of his trip to Europe and the Holy Land is manifested in a letter mailed to The Herald last Thursday from London. He and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. (Ted) Russell attended the Baptist World Alliance at London, and will travel thence to Switzerland, Italy, Egypt, the Holy Land, back to France and then home.

Excerpts from the Boyd letter follow:

As we came over, even from Fort Worth, the flying was good all the way. Some rain fell in Kentucky, but we flew above it.

Flying is smoother than riding on a good train. There was none who became sick on the entire trip.

We stopped at Gander, Newfoundland to refuel, and took off for Brussels and on to London. In crossing the Atlantic Ocean we only had about a three and one-half hour flight at night due to the rate of travel against daylight. When we return we will have much longer night flying on account of the plane and light traveling in the same direction.

We have seen a lot of sights in London, mostly famous points of historical interest. We went out to Windsor Castle, and it is the most wonderful sight I have seen thus far. I went to hear Dr. Louie Newton last Sunday. He preached on the fall of man and the center.

Attendants are urged to bring potato chips. Other foods and drinks will be available at the snack bar. The public is invited to attend.

HIGHWAY PROGRAM IN HAMLIN AREA GROWING

One of the most efficient and quietest working departments of our state government is the Texas Highway Commission. It has attained this reputation through the years by a progressive highway building program that is a highlight for the whole United States to pattern after. Certainly one of the principal reasons for this sustained reputation is that the commission has counted among its members some of the state's shrewdest business men who have been well grounded in good business principles, honesty and integrity.

We have not printed the foregoing paragraph necessarily as a bouquet to members of the commission, but as a prelude to the assertion that the Hamlin section has not been overlooked—nor have any other sections that we can offhand recall—in the matter of highway construction where the roads are most needed.

Besides the two major state and national highways that bisect each other at Hamlin, the region has been provided several vital feeder farm-to-market roads that are almost equal in quality to the major roads. Farm-to-market roads to McCaulley, Sylvester and Longworth; to Nienda, Boyd's Chapel and Merkel; from Sylvester to Merkel; from Hanna to Plainview, Tuxedo and on to Rule; from Highway 180 west of Roby, north to Royston and on to Highway 92 between Hamlin and Rotan—these are some of the major arteries that really serve Hamlin and the section.

To be sure, Jones, Fisher, Taylor and Haskell Counties have cooperated in the securing of right-of-way for these farm-to-market roads, but approval of the routes actually has been up to engineers of the Texas Highway Department and Commission. Those men look at roads from their practical viewpoints; their justification and filling of a need in the various communities.

But, since major roads to communities in the section have received ready attention from highway officials, we should be further challenged by still other possibilities. We have in mind two particularly strategic routes that no doubt would receive favorable attention from highway engineers. They are a route running from the southwest city limit of Hamlin due west to the Humble Oil Company camp and oil fields in the Royston area, to connect with the Royston north-south farm-to-market road; and due north from the Midwest Cooperative Oil Mill to Old Glory, serving the Hamlin Sand & Gravel Company plant area and a rich farming and ranching region south and north of the Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos River.

And here comes the need again for the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce: Some ground work was done by the CC on these routes. They need to be pushed—and now!

Safety Is a Personal Thing

Bill Vukovich, twice victorious in the 500-mile race at Indianapolis, died in a tragic accident on Memorial Day week-end trying for an unprecedented third win in a row. The news of Vukovich's fatal crash on the speedway filled radio listeners with horror. They mourned a popular hero.

Several hours later came the news of 368 deaths in other fatal auto crashes on the highway. But the absence of drama in these accidents—and the anonymity of the victims—produced no comparable sense of loss to the nation as a whole.

Bill Vukovich took a calculated risk when he stepped into his high-speed car. He was an expert driver and he knew the odds.

You and I might say he was foolish to take such chances. But just what chances did he take, as compared to those many so-called "pleasure" drivers take?

First, he was a fine driver. He had passed a rigorous examination of his skill and his physical condition before he was allowed on the track. His reflexes and coordination probably were far above average. His car was tuned like a fine watch. Every mechanical part had been checked and rechecked. He would have changed tires twice had he finished the race. The car was reinforced with roll-over bars. He wore a crash helmet and safety belt.

His fellow drivers also were experts. They were all going one way. There was no cross traffic, no pedestrians, no narrow bridges, no turns, hills, no blinding lights and countless other hazards met in almost every mile of ordinary roadway.

How many highway drivers know as well as Vukovich did the hazards they may encounter? How many are as well equipped to cope with them? Safe driving is a personal thing!

Animal Sense Is Vital

Probably an unexplored field in behavior lies in an objective study of the way animals act. There might even be more of value here than in the study of motivation that is now so popular a subject.

Stuart Russell of Holyoke, Massachusetts, has evidently read a book along these lines. In a recent speech to industrial distributors at the Edgewater Gulf Hotel Mr. Russell told how both the African badger and a small bird called the honey bird work together.

Both like honey but neither can secure it alone. So, the bird scouts the country to find the hive and then leads the badger to it.

Then they enjoy the honey together.

Have you seen any African pictures lately? If so, you probably noticed a white bird riding on the back of a hippopotamus. They do it to guide the big fellows to and away from the water. The hippos cannot see the water very well and have few senses for finding it. Just how the bird comes out to advantage is not clear.

Then Russell tells of an alliance between the crocodile and the courser, a small plover-like bird. After feeding, the crocodile opens its mouth and the little bird pops in and out to pick the monster's teeth. Thus, a meal is exchanged for a service.

Editorial of the Week

A DURABLE FORCE

In a way it seems curious that 10 years ago we were bent upon the destruction and unconditional surrender of Germany, while now we have just been moving to re-arm this twice-beaten enemy. Ten years ago we were beating Japan into weakness; now we are still concerned with her recovery in the hope that she will stay in line with the Western world.

With the Communist clique using Russia and China as tools, we need the strength of every friend, regardless of past enmities. Nevertheless, the treatment of Germany and Japan sets a kind of mark in Christian diplomacy. While not prepared to abandon armed might, there are those who believe that the golden rule may yet yield more power for peace than hydrogen bombs.

The Kremlin, unfortunately, has not found out that peace and production pay off far better than force. They may blow up the world but they will never blow up the golden rule.—Town Journal.

Now Is the Time

Time is so precious that it is dealt out to us only in the smallest possible fraction—a tiny moment—at a time. We cannot live again the moment that has just passed, nor can we live in the moment that is to come.

Just while the pendulum is swinging through the present instant—this is the only time of which we are sure, the only time to do our thinking, our working. We should make this a perfect moment.

RECALLING Other Years

* Being news items taken from old files of Your Home Town Newspaper, The Herald

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Life ended for one of Hamlin's most colorful characters of the past few decades when John Marcellus (Tex) Moore died at his home in Wichita Falls Tuesday. Tex had come to Hamlin several years ago at the behest of his friends, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McCrary.

In voting last Saturday Governor Allan Shivers was returned to the governor's chair. Of chief local interest, Commissioner Roy C. Brown will face Johnny Agnew in a run-off race for commissioner of Precinct No. 1.

Cotton bollworms, leafworms and bulb weevils have taken over the cotton insect picture in the Hamlin area, following a winning battle over grasshoppers that has lasted several weeks.

This week marked the arrival of the first shipment of steel for erection of the new section of the football stadium for Hamlin High School. Work of erection has already started.

John C. Bryant is recovering from a spinal operation in Dallas.

ONE YEAR AGO.

Among items of general interest in the Hamlin community a year ago included the following, which are reproduced from the issue of July 30, 1954:

Election of a new county Judge, H. G. (Pete) Andrews Jr., highlighted interest in the primary election last Saturday. Most of the area favored Ralph Yarbrough for governor, but the state went into the Allan Shivers column.

Work of the city tax equalization board in adjusting values of city property on a major scale, the first time in many years, is about complete, according to John C. Bryan, chairman of the equalization board.

Maxine Crawford spent Tuesday in Hamlin visiting with her mother, Mrs. J. J. Crawford, and family. Maxine is in training at Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene.

RED CROSS GIVES AID.

During 1954 the American Red Cross Disaster Services financially assisted an average of one family every 75 minutes and gave emergency mass care to one person every nine minutes.

Former FBI Man Tells Rotary Club Of Experiences

Experiences of a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for several years were related by Clark Rice of Abilene as the program feature at the Wednesday noon luncheon of the Hamlin Rotary Club at the oil mill guest house.

Rice is now a special agent for the board of underwriters. He was born and raised in Nebraska, attended college and was agriculture agent for one year and served in the Air Force before he was with the detective organization in New York City for five years, he declared.

Interesting experiences in the criminal squad of New York City provided thrills and chills, he related. The past two years of duty was with the department that handled kidnappings, extortions, etc.

Rice declared that more men from Texas, Nebraska and Minnesota have passed stringent specifications of the FBI than other states of the union.

J. W. Maddox was presented as a new member of the Rotary Club. He is connected with the Hamlin Sand & Gravel Company.

Besides Rice, other guests at the Wednesday luncheon included Charles Young, H. M. McNeely, Hugh M. Hardy, Bill Blakeny and O. D. Dillingham of Abilene; Rev.

This Week's Livestock Market Repeats Last Week's Small Batch at Good Prices

The cattle, hog and sheep offerings at Fort Worth Monday were about on a par with the previous Monday, which was the smallest since early in the year, declared Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly release.

Lighter receipts put more life into the market and most classes sold strong. Fat cattle were slow, but about on a par with last week's closing prices. Good and choice slaughter steers brought up to $21.25. Cows were 50 cents higher, and good cows around $12.50, a few up to $13. Bulls were slow but about steady at $9 to $13.50.

Slaughter calves started slow in the early trading Monday, but prices were steady with the previous Friday's close. Slaughter calves brought $9 to $10.

Stockers and feeders were fully steady. Only a small per cent of these are really choice kinds, most being medium quality yearlings and calves. Medium and good stocker and feeder steers sold at $14 to $19.50. The same kind of stocker steer calves brought $14 to $20.50.

Hogs regained most of last week's losses with both choice butchers and sows $1 higher than the previous week's close, and lightweights around 50 cents higher. Top butchers cashed at $17.75 to $18. Lightweights and less desirable kinds drew $16.50 to $17.75. Sows sold largely at $12 to $15, but light, smooth sows weighing 300 or less brought up to $16.

The sheep run Monday consist-

Milk Price Advances At Most Hamlin Stores

Price of milk advanced at most stores in Hamlin last week, the price going up from one to two cents per quart.

Two major milk retailers declared the increase was caused by the higher prices they must pay the producer. A representative of Foremost Dairy Products Company said additional increases are considered possible by the first of the year.

Milk prices at Safeway have not advanced on Lucerne products, said Curtis Dodd, manager.

Two from Hamlin Attend Short Course For Firemen of Texas

Jack White, assistant fire chief of the Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department, and City Fire Marshal T. W. (Mickey) McGuire, returned last week-end from a five-day firemen's short course conducted at Texas A. & M. College.

The Hamlin men, along with scores of others from all parts of the state, were schooled in latest methods of fighting all types of fires. Actual demonstrations in fighting house fires, oil, butane, gasoline and other blazes were conducted.

Classes on handling hose and ladders to better equip firemen for rescue work were conducted, as well as classes on fire hazards.

Expenses of the firemen were paid by the city. Credits on fire insurance rates are made possible by the attendance of the firemen at the short course.

It's the 4-Door Riviera—the stunning new hit of America's Hardtops

WHEN Buick introduced America's first hardtop—the Riviera—folks went for it in a big way, and fast.

They liked the Convertible look of this 2-door beauty—long, low and rakish. They liked the added security of the steel roof overhead. And they certainly liked the absence of center posts in the side window areas—which gave a completely unbroken view left and right.

People liked it all so well that, over the past six years, they made the Riviera the biggest-selling hardtop in the world, bar none. And it still is.

Now Buick has come up with another great advance in hardtops—the 4-Door Riviera—and it's a sensational hit.

Why don't you come see this brand-new kind of automobile that's heading up the parade of the hottest-selling line of Buicks in history?

Austin.—Every outward sign of courtroom confidence is being exhibited by Bascom Giles.

His trial or charges of taking $6,800 from the state, in connection with a Kinney County land deal, got underway July 5. Almost the entire first week was spent in selecting jurors.

More than 50 witnesses were subpoenaed by the state before the trial began, but Giles' attorneys refused to show their hands by issuing early subpoenas.

Testimony is expected to consume the greater part of two weeks.

Giles, who originated the $100,000 veterans' land program, and administered it until January 1 of this year, appears to be as cool and confident as any man in the room.

Among those representing him is his son, Rogan. Others are former state senator Clint Small Jr., Clint Small Jr. and Polk Shelton. All are Austin attorneys.

Representing the state is Les Procter, district attorney of Travis County, and his two assistants, John Allen and Bob Smith.

Procter sought, but did not receive, funds from the Legislature to hire extra staff members for the veterans' land program cases.

Representatives from the attorney general's office sat as spectators as the trial got underway. Procter ducked questions as to why they were not participating.

Brady land dealer R. B. Shefield, indicted jointly with Giles, in the Kinney County deal, awaits trial after Giles. Trials are yet to come, too, in scores of other cases stemming from the sweeping inquiries into the land program, which began last November.

A judge's attack at asthma gave South Texas political boss George Parr a breathing spell last week. But Parr faces additional difficulties in a federal income tax evasion case set for July 18 at Austin.

Parr's trial on a conspiracy charge in District Judge John R. Fuch's court in New Braunfels was indefinitely postponed when the 69-year-old jurist was severely stricken with asthma.

Parr, along with 11 others, is under indictment for misappropriation of Benavides Independent School District funds in Duval County.

It's "hands off" for the State Board of Education, in racial integration of local school districts.

School districts will get their state aid money whether they are segregated or not.

Although offering the assistance of its staff in solving desegregation problems, the board made it clear that no suggestion or direction will be given as to what each school district should

Time for Livestock Loans from FHA in Jones County Extended for Two Years

Jones County farmers and ranchers can participate in special livestock loans made available through the Farmers Home Administration.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture's special livestock loan program has been extended for two years, through July 14, 1957. Provisions for the extension are contained in Public Law 166, which was signed by President Eisenhower July 15.

During the two years this special credit has been available through the Farmers Home Administration, 6,382 loans totaling more than $54,000,000 have been made to livestock producers. Of this number, 1,741 loans totaling more than $18,000,000 were made to Texas livestock producers.

Special livestock loans are made to established producers and feeders of cattle, sheep and goats (except commercial feed lot operators) who are temporarily unable to get from regular sources the credit needed to continue their normal operations.

To be eligible, an applicant must have a good past record of livestock operations and have reasonable prospects for success with the help of the loan.

Loans are made to meet the usual expenses of livestock operations such as the purchase of product of feed, and replacing or repairing of farm machinery. Loans may also be made for the restocking of herds to normal if the applicant can carry his present herd plus the additional livestock to be purchased without buying a substantial portion of his feed. Loans are not made to pay existing debts.

Loans are scheduled for repayment as soon as possible within a maximum period of three years. Other creditors are not asked to subordinate their liens but are expected to execute a stand-by agreement and agree that a reasonable part of the applicant's normal income from livestock can be used in repaying the loan.

Applications for special livestock loans may be made at the local county office of the Farmers Home Administration located in the basement of the post office building at Anson.

Rev. Marshall Rhew, superintendent of Methodist Churches in the Stamford District, preached at the morning service at the First Methodist Church in the absence of the pastor. The evening preaching hour was devoted to a panel discussion led by Wesley Nail.

Rev. Darris L. Egger, the pastor, was in Bloomington, Indiana, attending the quadrennial conference of the Town and Country Commission of which he is secretary for the Northwest Texas District.

Hamlin Entry in Abilene Little League Tournament Goes Down in First Game

Hamlin's entry in the Abilene area Little League tournament staged first of the week at Abilene, went down in the first round of play—in fact, in the first game of the tournament—before a crew of Dixie League All-Stars from Abilene. Score of the Monday night tilt was 3 to 0.

Hamlin's team was made up of players from the four teams of Little League players that had played outstanding ball in the regular season.

The Dixie victory Monday night was set up in the third inning when Pitcher Corplan of Abilene, first batter in the frame, got on by an error by Hamlin Second Baseman Lorin Shields. Corplan stole second and went to third as Buddy True singled. Bob Cluck walked and stole second. A wild pitch to Batter Loran McGill allowed Cluck to go down, and moments later a bad throw to second admitted Corplan past home plate.

The other two runs came in the fourth inning. Raymond Grappapen a home run over the left field fence with none on to make it 2 to 0 in favor of the Dixie nine. Shortly thereafter Milk Ragsdale took first on a fielder's choice, moved to second when True singled, took third on a single by Rene Walling, and was forced in on a walk to Cluck.

Hamlin had one opportunity to score, but it faded as Shields, who was on third, was tagged at home plate by Catcher Jim Berrier.

VICTOR ORTIZ, popular pastor of the Mexican Baptist Mission in Hamlin, and his family are enjoying a vacation with relatives in Old Mexico.

We received a card from him mailed at Nuevo Laredo as he apparently was headed toward the interior.

Victor, who has worked hard through many difficulties, felt the call to preach when he was nearly 50 years of age. Despite the burden of a big family, he finished his education, attending Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene and took special training at a theological seminary in California.

As a civic minded citizen of Hamlin, a member of the Rotary Club, he has many friends among those of his race and the white as well.

THE LITTLE SQUIB below deserves repeating every once in a while, because new generations keep coming on that it may be news to . . .

Waitress—"Hawaii, sir. You must be Hungary."

Customer—"Yes, Siam, and I can't Rumania here very long. Venetian lunch ready?"

Waitress—"Till Russia to a tabby. What'll you have?"

Customer—"Anything Atoll, but can't Jamaica little speed?"

Waitress—"I don't think the cook can Fiji that fast, but Alaska."

Customer—"Never mind asking anyone. Just put a Cuba sugar in my Java."

Waitress—"Sweden it yourself. I'm only here to Serbia your meal."

Customer—"Denmark my bill and call the Cosperos. He'll probably know Kenya. I don't Bolivia know who I am."

Waitress—"No, and I don't Carnegie. You sure Ararat."

Boss—"What's got India? Do you think this arguing Alps business?"

Customer—"Canada noise, too. Spain in the neck."

MICE AND CATS have always been a problem with some folks, but we never thought things would get this bad:

"Doctor, doctor," called Mr. Schultz frantically, "come quick. You know my wife sleeps with her mouth wide open, and just now a mouse ran down her throat."

"I'll be over in a few minutes," said the doctor. "Meanwhile try waving a piece of cheese in front of her mouth and maybe the mouse will come out."

When the doctor arrived, he found Schultz waving a six-pound flounder in front of the prostrate Mrs. Schultz's face.

"What's the idea?" asked the exasperated doctor. "I told you to wave a piece of cheese. Mice don't like flounders."

"I know, I know," gasped Schultz. "But we've got to get the cat out first."

DIPLOMACY is considered both a virtue and frailty, depending on who is using it and how. For example . . .

Some children are adept at evasive answers to such an extent that they rate a diplomatic mission.

The story is told of little Jack who ran to his mother in the basement, and asked her to put some iodine on his knee. It was badly scratched.

Mother—"How did it happen?" Son—"I was climbing up on the pantry shelf and it broke and I hit my knee on the bottom shelf."

Mother—"What on earth were you doing up there?"

Son—"I was trying to get the glue so I could fix that big vase in the living room."

Mother—"Goodness! Did you break that?"

Son—"No, the golf ball did when it bounced off the mantle mirror."

Mother—"My heavens! Don't tell me you were playing golf in the living room."

Son—"No, I wasn't. I was outside in the yard and the ball went through the living room window."

USING CAUTION was one fellow's motto, even under unusual circumstances. For example . . .

An undertaker wired the man: "Your mother-in-law just died. Shall I bury, embalm or cremate her?"

And the guy wires back: "All three; take no chances."

Scout Swim Meet of District Attracts 75 Boys to New Pool

Anson and Haskell Troops Take Top Contest Honors

Revamped Country Club Offers Better Golfing Facilities

Although Hamlin Boy Scouts failed to get into the leading winning class in the swimming meet staged Sunday afternoon at the new swimming pool at the City Park, the pool won the admiration and acclaim of about 75 Cubs, Boy Scouts and Explorers of the Northern District of the Chisholm Trail Council.

The annual Swim-o-Ree, directed by Ray Davis of Stamford, district field executive, was sponsored by the Hamlin Explorer Post, of which Roy Dunlap is leader.

Contests, embracing 10 swimming and diving events, provided two hours of thrills and spills for several hundred onlookers.

Anson troop No. 22 took first place honors with 45 points; Haskell troop No. 38 was second with 40 points; Hamlin troop No. 43 scored 13 points; and Haskell's troop No. 35 trailed with 12 points.

W. L. Boyd Enjoys Visits to Historic Old Spots Before Heading for Holy Land

Supreme enjoyment of W. L. Boyd, long-time Hamlin resident, of his trip to Europe and the Holy Land is manifested in a letter mailed to The Herald last Thursday from London. He and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. (Ted) Russell attended the Baptist World Alliance at London, and will travel thence to Switzerland, Italy, Egypt, the Holy Land, back to France and then home.

Excerpts from the Boyd letter follow:

As we came over, even from Fort Worth, the flying was good all the way. Some rain fell in Kentucky, but we flew above it.

We have seen a lot of sights in London, mostly famous points of historical interest. We went to Windsor Castle, and it is the most wonderful sight I have seen thus far. I want to hear Dr. Louie Newton last Sunday. He preached on the fall of man and attendants urged to bring potato chips. Other foods and drinks will be available at the snack bar. The public is invited to attend.

Games will be featured next Thursday evening at the Neinda community gathering, beginning at 8:00 o'clock, meeting at the community center.

Attendants are urged to bring potato chips. Other foods and drinks will be available at the snack bar. The public is invited to attend.

WANTED IN TEXAS—Brasel Carmichael (left), alleged Air Force deserter the FBI says is wanted for questioning in connection with the slaying of a Dallas woman, is led to his cell in the Chautauqua County jail at Mayville, New York. Carmichael is being held in $10,000 bail on a federal charge of transporting a stolen auto across state lines. At right is Sheriff Charles McCloskey Jr.

Early Maize Not Yielding As Well as First Predicted

Hamlin National Guardsmen in First Place Award Units

Sixteen Hamlin young men were among the hundreds who attended the annual maneuvers for National Guard units of Central West Texas at Fort Hood for the past two weeks. They returned home Sunday.

Thirteen of the men were members of Company M of the 142nd Infantry Regiment with headquarters at Stamford. The other three were members of Abilene's Headquarters and Headquarters Company.

Company M again won the battalion trophy which is given each year to the best company in the battalion for the summer camp training.

Company M now has 81 enlisted men and six officers, including Lieutenant Joe E. Ford, who declares that anyone wishing to become a member of Company M may contact him at the Hamlin bank.

Lieutenant Ford says that the payroll for the 15 days at camp for the company amounted to more than $6,740.

Members of Company M from Hamlin include: Lieutenant Ford; Sergeants David Ford, Jack Herd, B. J. Jordan and James Moberry; Corporals Aubrey Haught, Glenn Smith and Fred Wissell; Privates First Class Lee Moberry and James Spencer; and Privates Steve Lawlis, Mahan Hall and G. P. Menard.

Don Gregory, Dan Gallagher and Kenneth T. Scott attended with the Anson unit.

Roy Glenn Williams on All-District Eleven

Roy Glenn Williams, member of the all-star team chosen from the four Little League teams to represent Hamlin at the district tournament last week at Abilene, was chosen as a member of the mythical all-district team.

Man, that course is uptown! It's modern! It's inviting! And not only that; it's beautiful! Citizens of the town who never play golf owe it to themselves to go out and take a gander and a stroll about the course.

The little club house, we found, had a brand new covered patio which, with a little paint and polish, will be a first-rate place for resting and refreshment. With materials donated by first concern and then another, some of the ardent members constructed the sun porch.

A supply of bibbed seats donated by Hamlin Schools provide the patio with comfortable and practical seats for serving.

And then a drive around the nine-hole golf course revealed

Prewit Named New County Polio Head

L. E. (Gene) Prewit of Hamlin of Anson, Robert Wyche of Nodell and Johnny Grissom of Stamford, three-year directors; Ted Dudley of Anson, L. E. Prewit of Hamlin, Robert Gross of Anson, John R. Rice of Stamford and J. H. Womack of Hawley, two-year directors; J. S. Inzer of Hamlin, Holly Tolier of Hamlin, Glenn Odell of Lueders, C. A. Thornton of Lueders and Hugo Haterius of Avoca, one-year directors.

Medical advisors for the county unit were named to include Dr. Will Andrus of Anson, Dr. Tom Salmon of Stamford and Dr. E. D. Perrin of Hamlin.

Mike Hyer, state representative of the Texas Infantile Paralysis Foundation, was present and presented overall plans for the fund raising campaign slated this fall.

A meeting of the full board of directors has been called for Monday evening, August 8, at 7:30 o'clock at the oil mill guest house in Hamlin, when county plans for the fund raising drive will be made, Prewit announced.

August Oil Allowable Unchanged from July

Current crude oil allowable pattern for the state was not changed from the July allowances when the August production was set last week by the Texas Railroad Commission.

Allowable as of July 16 was 16,288,324 barrels per day.

The state is currently on 15-day production schedule. It will be continued through August under the commission order issued after last week's state-wide proration hearing at Austin.

DePriest School Opens New Term August 8

Hamlin's DePriest Colored School will open the 1955-56 term of school on Monday, August 8. It was announced last week by Superintendent of Schools L. R. Hutchingson.

A new teacher has been added to the faculty this year, making seven on the faculty. An increase in enrollment is expected. Thirteen new high school students will come by bus from Rotan this year, Hutchingson stated.

Under the control program, cotton grown on land in excess of an individual farm's acreage allotment is subject to the penalty whether marketed or not.

Farm law fixes the penalties of 50 per cent of the parity price of the respective types of cotton.

Growers who exceed their acreage allotments not only are subject to penalties on the excess cotton, but become ineligible for price support aid.

ATTEND ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Travis and daughters, Mrs. Fred Wheeler of Sweetwater, Mrs. Charles Brewer of Hamlin and Mrs. Ray Light of Breckenridge, went last week to Nocona to attend the fifty-second wedding anniversary of Mrs. Travis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Evans.

Harvest Hurried By Drying Winds That Sear Plants

Maize crop in the Hamlin region, while not turning out as well as was expected a month ago, is making some good yields and turn-outs in some instances, report buyers at Fred B. Moore Grain Company and Mar-Ket Poultry & Egg Company.

Probably 20 cars of grain have been purchased by both the local markets up to Wednesday night, most of which has come from fielded fields of grain that was being harvested ahead of schedule in order to save the heads from shattering and burning.

Much of the grain has contained extra moisture, and quite a lot of the grains are not completely developed. The hot, dry winds of recent days have burned the stalks, and the harvesting was rushed to save the grain.

Reports of yields from 1,000 to 1,500 pounds of maize per acre have been made to the buyers, they say.

Practically all the grain is being sold on the open market at $1.55 for No. 1 grain. Some grades have been penalized for excess moisture or undeveloped grains. A government loan price of $1.50 per 100 pounds has found few takers.

Later planted maize, which should start moving within 10 days to two weeks, should turn out better than the early crops that were caught in a squeeze for rains, declare the buyers.

Merkel Pastor to Lead In 11-Day Revival At Fairview Church

Rev. Sam Tullock of Merkel is to lead in a revival at the Fairview Baptist Church, east of Hamlin, beginning Friday, August 5, and continuing through Sunday, August 14, according to Rev. M. E. Randolph, pastor.

Tullock is pastor of the First Baptist Church in Merkel. Song services will be directed by Johnnie Agnew, and pianist will be Mrs. Agnew.

Morning services for the revival will be at 10:00 o'clock beginning Monday, and evening services are set for 7:30 o'clock.

A training union course for the Fairview church will be conducted August 1 to 4 under the direction of Bertie Agnew of the First Baptist Church in Anson, Randolph announces.

Who's New This Week

The stork dumped the boys as he visited the Hamlin Memorial Hospital during the past week. Every one of the five new citizens reported since last week's issue of The Herald being a whisker-grover. They are:

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Carmichael reported last week as arriving July 19, weighed six pounds four ounces. He has been named Don Keith.

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Fleenor of Lubbock discovered America July 22 at 4:25 a. m. He was named Jerry Lynn after having his weight checked at eight pounds 13 1/2 ounces.

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor arrived July 22 at 6:00 a. m. The light-weight of the new borns, he tipped the scales at five pounds 10 pounds. He will answer to Joe Don.

HIGHWAY PROGRAM IN HAMLIN AREA GROWING

One of the most efficient and quietest working departments of our state government is the Texas Highway Commission. It has attained this reputation through the years by a progressive highway building program that is a highlight for the whole United States to pattern after. Certainly one of the principal reasons for this sustained reputation is that the commission has counted among its members some of the state's shrewdest business men who have been well grounded in good business principles, honesty and integrity.

We have not printed the foregoing paragraph necessarily as a bouquet to members of the commission, but as a prelude to the assertion that the Hamlin section has not been overlooked—nor have any other sections that we can offhand recall—in the matter of highway construction where the roads are most needed.

Besides the two major state and national highways that bisect each other at Hamlin, the region has been provided several vital feeder farm-to-market roads that are almost equal in quality to the major roads. Farm-to-market roads to McCaulley, Sylvester and Longworth; to Nienda, Boyd's Chapel and Merkel; from Sylvester to Merkel; from Hanna to Plainview, Tuxedo and on to Rule; from Highway 180 west of Roby, north to Royston and on to Highway 92 between Hamlin and Rotan—these are some of the major arteries that really serve Hamlin and the section.

To be sure, Jones, Fisher, Taylor and Haskell Counties have cooperated in the securing of right-of-way for these farm-to-market roads, but approval of the routes actually has been up to engineers of the Texas Highway Department and Commission. Those men look at roads from their practical viewpoints; their justification and filling of a need in the various communities.

But, since major roads to communities in the section have received ready attention from highway officials, we should be further challenged by still other possibilities. We have in mind two particularly strategic routes that no doubt would receive favorable attention from highway engineers. They are a route running from the southwest city limit of Hamlin due west to the Humble Oil Company camp and oil fields in the Royston area, to connect with the Royston north-south farm-to-market road; and due north from the Midwest Cooperative Oil Mill to Old Glory, serving the Hamlin Sand & Gravel Company plant area and a rich farming and ranching region south and north of the Double Mountain Fork of the Brazos River.

And here comes the need again for the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce: Some ground work was done by the CC on these routes. They need to be pushed—and now!

Safety Is a Personal Thing

Bill Vukovich, twice victorious in the 500-mile race at Indianapolis, died in a tragic accident on Memorial Day week-end trying for an unprecedented third win in a row. The news of Vukovich's fatal crash on the speedway filled radio listeners with horror. They mourned a popular hero.

Several hours later came the news of 368 deaths in other fatal auto crashes on the highway. But the absence of drama in these accidents—and the anonymity of the victims—produced no comparable sense of loss to the nation as a whole.

Bill Vukovich took a calculated risk when he stepped into his high-speed car. He was an expert driver and he knew the odds.

You and I might say he was foolish to take such chances. But just what chances did he take, as compared to those many so-called "pleasure" drivers take?

First, he was a fine driver. He had passed a rigorous examination of his skill and his physical condition before he was allowed on the track. His reflexes and coordination probably were far above average. His car was tuned like a fine watch. Every mechanical part had been checked and rechecked. He would have changed tires twice had he finished the race. The car was reinforced with roll-over bars. He wore a crash helmet and safety belt.

His fellow drivers also were experts. They were all going one way. There was no cross traffic, no pedestrians, no narrow bridges, no turns, hills, no blinding lights and countless other hazards met in almost every mile of ordinary roadway.

How many highway drivers know as well as Vukovich did the hazards they may encounter? How many are as well equipped to cope with them? Safe driving is a personal thing!

Now Is the Time

Time is so precious that it is dealt out to us only in the smallest possible fraction—a tiny moment—at a time. We cannot live again the moment that has just passed, nor can we live in the moment that is to come.

Just while the pendulum is swinging through the present instant—this is the only time of which we are sure, the only time to do our thinking, our working. We should make this a perfect moment.

RECALLING Other Years

* Being news items taken from old files of Your Home Town Newspaper, The Herald

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Goings-on in the Hamlin community 20 years ago included the following, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 26, 1935:

C. D. Hudson and family of Abilene came over for the past week-end to visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Ebert, who had as their guests Margaret Peel of Tulia and Major Frank Young and family of Washington, D. C.

Last Sunday the Hamlin country just barely escaped a flood and hail storm. Practically all of Fisher County had big rains and many localities had devastating hail that destroyed crops. Prospects around Hamlin are the best since 1914, when records crops were made.

District Governor Jim Wilson of Floydada of Rotary International was a visitor with the Hamlin Rotary Club last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins of Dallas have been visiting her mother, Mrs. T. B. Middleton, east of Hamlin.

Clarence Bailey, the old reliable at Strauss Dry Goods Company, took his vacation on the cool front porch of his home.

Ruby Dean, Lola and Viva Milstead returned last Friday from Las Vegas and Taos, New Mexico, where they had spent six weeks as students at the Texas Tech botany field course.

TEN YEARS AGO.

Among items of interest in the Hamlin territory 10 years ago were the following news briefs, taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 27, 1945:

Hamlin Hatchery was sold this week by Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Martin to Gordon R. Bennett, former superintendent of Hamlin Schools.

Buy M. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. White, arrived home this week after his discharge from the medical department of the Army on the basis of points accumulated. He served in Sicily, Italy, France, Austria and Germany.

Mrs. Mac Brundage arrived home this week after a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph H. Worley, in Alameda, California.

Edwin Gilbert returned Friday from Camp Waldemar, near Kerrville, where she was a counselor at the girls' summer camp.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ed Day and Mr. and Mrs. Starr Inzer returned Saturday from a two-week trip into Old Mexico.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Among items of news interest in the Hamlin community five years ago were the following, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 28, 1950:

Life ended for one of Hamlin's most colorful characters of the past few decades when John Marcellus (Tex) Moore died at his home in Wichita Falls Tuesday. Tex had come to Hamlin several years ago at the behest of his friends, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McCrary.

In voting last Saturday Governor Allan Shivers was returned to the governor's chair. Of chief local interest, Commissioner Roy C. Brown will face John Agnew in a run-off race for commissioner of Precinct No. 1.

Cotton bollworms, leafworms and boll weevils have taken over the cotton insect picture in the Hamlin area, following a winning battle over grasshoppers that has lasted several weeks.

This week marked the arrival of the first shipment of steel for erection of the new section of the football stadium for Hamlin High School. Work of erection has already started.

John C. Bryant is recovering from a spinal operation in Dallas.

ONE YEAR AGO.

Among items of general interest in the Hamlin community a year ago included the following, which are reproduced from the issue of July 30, 1954:

Election of a new county judge, H. G. (Pete) Andrews Jr., highlighted interest in the primary election last Saturday. Most of the area favored Ralph Yarbrough for governor, but the state went into the Allan Shivers column.

Work of the city tax equalization board in adjusting values of city property on a major scale, the first time in many years, is about complete, according to John C. Bryant, chairman of the equalization board.

Roy Dunlap of Snyder is due to arrive in Hamlin Monday and assume his position as city coordinator. A street paving program will be among the first city projects to receive his attention.

Mrs. D. M. White Wins Limerick Contest Prize

Mrs. D. M. White, wife of a Hamlin hotel owner and real estate man, was awarded one of $17 cash prizes in a recent limerick contest conducted by General Electric Company.

Supplying a last line to a printed verse, she received a check for $10 for her entry, which arrived Wednesday from the Schenectady, New York, offices of the concern.

VISITOR AT HOME.

Maxine Crawford spent Tuesday in Hamlin visiting with her mother, Mrs. J. J. Crawford, and family. Maxine is in training at Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene.

RED CROSS GIVES AID.

During 1954 the American Red Cross Disaster Services financially assisted an average of one family every 75 minutes and gave emergency mass care to one person every nine minutes.

VISIT WITH ARNOLDS

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Vest and daughter, Velma Jean, of Santa Paula, California, were here for several days visiting with Mrs. Vest's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Arnold.

Former FBI Man Tells Rotary Club Of Experiences

Experiences of a member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for several years were related by Clark Rice of Abilene as the program feature at the Wednesday noon luncheon of the Hamlin Rotary Club at the oil mill guest house.

Rice is now a special agent for the board of underwriters. He was born and raised in Nebraska, attended college and was agriculture agent for one year and served in the Air Force before he was with the detective organization in New York City for five years, he declared.

Interesting experiences in the criminal squad of New York City provided thrills and chills, he related. The past two years of duty was with the department that handled kidnappings, extortions, etc.

Rice declared that more men from Texas, Nebraska and Minnesota have passed stringent specifications of the FBI than other states of the union.

J. W. Maddox was presented as a new member of the Rotary Club. He is connected with the Hamlin Sand & Gravel Company.

Besides Rice, other guests at the Wednesday luncheon included Charles Young, H. M. McNeely, Hugh M. Hardy, Bill Blakeny and O. D. Dillingham of Abilene; Rev.

This Week's Livestock Market Repeats Last Week's Small Batch at Good Prices

The cattle, hog and sheep offerings at Fort Worth Monday were about on a par with the previous Monday, which was the smallest since early in the year, declared Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly release.

Lighter receipts put more life into the market and most classes sold strong. Fat cattle were slow, but about on a par with last week's closing prices. Good and choice slaughter steers brought up to $21.25. Cows were 50 cents higher, and good cows around $12.50, a few up to $13. Bulls were slow but about steady at $9 to $13.50.

Slaughter calves started slow in the early trading Monday, but prices were steady with the previous Friday's close. Slaughter calves brought $9 to $10.

Stockers and feeders were fully steady. Only a small per cent of these are really choice kinds, most being medium quality yearlings and calves. Medium and good stocker and feeder steers sold at $14 to $19.50. The same kind of stocker steer calves brought $14 to $20.50.

Hogs regained most of last week's losses with both choice butchers and sows $1 higher than the previous week's close, and lightweights around 50 cents higher. Top butchers cashed at $17.75 to $18. Lightweights and less desirable kinds drew $16.50 to $17.75. Sows sold largely at $12 to $15, but light, smooth sows weighing 300 or less brought up to $16.

The sheep run Monday consist-

Milk Price Advances At Most Hamlin Stores

Price of milk advanced at most stores in Hamlin last week, the price going up from one to two cents per quart.

Two major milk retailers declared the increase was caused by the higher prices they must pay the producer. A representative of Foremost Dairy Products Company said additional increases are considered possible by the first of the year.

Milk prices at Safeway have not advanced on Lucerne products, said Curtis Dodd, manager.

Two from Hamlin Attend Short Course For Firemen of Texas

Jack White, assistant fire chief of the Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department, and City Fire Marshal T. W. (Mickey) McGuire, returned last weekend from a five-day firemen's short course conducted at Texas A. & M. College.

The Hamlin men, along with scores of others from all parts of the state, were schooled in latest methods of fighting all types of fires. Actual demonstrations in fighting house fires, oil, butane, gasoline and other blazes were conducted.

Classes on handling hose and ladders to better equip firemen for rescue work were conducted, as well as classes on fire hazards.

Expenses of the firemen were paid by the city. Credits on fire insurance rates are made possible by the attendance of the firemen at the short course.

Holy Land Visitor Shows Pictures at Lions Club Session

Pictorial story, aided with some interesting descriptions, about his recent trip to the Near East and Europe was provided when Dr. Paul Southern, head of the Bible department at Abilene Christian College appeared on the program at the Tuesday noon luncheon of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

Dr. Southern made the colored pictures when he was a member of a group of American ministers and others who toured Europe and the Holy Land last December. The vivid aerial scenes, and those taken from vantage points on the tour revealed interesting buildings, customs and natural beauty spots. Featured in the pictures were scenes with Biblical backgrounds. Dr. Southern stood in a number of places visited by various Bible characters centuries ago.

Besides Dr. Southern, another guest at the Tuesday luncheon was Joe Breed of Anson.

LAST WEEK'S MYSTERY FARM PICTURE (above) was first correctly identified by L. C. Denton as the place of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lain, six miles northeast of town. Mystery Picture Of Last Week First Identified by Denton

L. C. Denton was first to correctly identify the mystery farm picture printed in last week's issue of The Hamlin Herald. He will receive a year's subscription to Your Home Town Paper.

The picture was of the J. C. Lain place, five miles northeast of Hamlin. The place is being worked by the Lains from their home place south of town, and the house is occupied by the J. A. McCurry family.

The 165-acre farm was purchased by the Lains eight years ago from Otoe Jones, who had previously purchased it from the Baize estate.

After purchasing the place, the Lains have put all of it into cultivation. The farm has been completely terraced and contoured to provide maximum soil and water conservation.

The farm's entire 165 acres are devoted to the raising of crops, and wheat, cotton and maize are the principal crops.

J. C. Lain and Leila Morton were married in 1923. They have two children, Mrs. Quita Buie of Fort Worth and James, who is at home. James graduated last May from Hamlin High School, where he was prominent in FFA work. He plans to enroll this fall at Tarleton State College at Stephenville, where he will major in agriculture.

Courtney taught school at McCaulley and carried the mail from McCaulley for 10 years. Mrs. Courtney taught in the McCaulley and Hamlin schools.

It's the 4-Door Riviera—
the stunning new hit
of America's Hardtops

WHEN Buick introduced America's first hardtop—the Riviera—folks went for it in a big way, and fast. They liked the Convertible look of this 2-door beauty—long, low and rakish. They liked the added security of the steel roof overhead. And they certainly liked the absence of center posts in the side window areas—which gave a completely unbroken view left and right.

People liked it all so well that, over the past six years, they made the Riviera the biggest-selling hardtop in the world, bar none. And it still is.

Now Buick has come up with another great advance in hardtops—the 4-Door Riviera—and it's a sensational hit.

Enjoy cooled, filtered air for less than you think with Buick's

AIRCONDITIONER

It's a genuine Frigidaire!

It has everything the original 2-Door Riviera has—plus separate doors for rear-seat passengers, and a whale of a lot more room for them. Rock-solid half-pillars on either side are what latch the front doors and hinge the rear ones. So there's no center post above the door line—and a completely open sweep of view to both sides. And the roominess provided by this gorgeous new hardtop is really something—over 9 inches more hiproom and 5 inches more legroom in the rear.

Why don't you come see this brand-new kind of automobile that's heading up the parade of the hottest-selling line of Buicks in history?

State Capitol NEWS

Austin.—Every outward sign of courtroom confidence is being exhibited by Bascom Giles.

His trial on charges of taking $6,800 from the state, in connection with a Kinney County land deal, got underway July 5. Almost the entire first week was spent in selecting jurors.

More than 50 witnesses were subpoenaed by the state before the trial began, but Giles' attorneys refused to show their hands by issuing early subpoenas.

Testimony is expected to consume the greater part of two weeks.

Giles, who originated the $100,000 veteran's land program, and administered it until January 1 of this year, appears to be as cool and confident as any man in the room.

Among those representing him is his son, Rogan. Others are former state senator Clint Small Sr., Clint Small Jr. and Pollie Shelton. All are Austin attorneys.

Representing the state is Les Procter, district attorney of Travis County, and his two assistants, John Allen and Bob Smith.

Procter sought, but did not receive, funds from the Legislature to hire extra staff members for the veterans' land program cases.

Representatives from the attorney general's office sat as spectators as the trial got underway. Procter ducked questions as to why they were not participating.

Brady land dealer R. B. Sheffield, indicted jointly with Giles, in the Kinney County deal, awaits trial after Giles. Trials are yet to come, too, in scores of other cases stemming from the sweeping inquiries into the land program, which began last November.

A judge's attack on asthma gave

South Texas political boss George Parr a breathing spell last week. But Parr faces additional difficulties in a federal income tax evasion case set for July 18 at Austin.

Parr's trial on a conspiracy charge in District Judge John R. Fuch's court in New Braunfels was indefinitely postponed when the 69-year-old jurist was severely stricken with asthma.

Parr, along with 11 others, is under indictment for misappropriation of Benavides Independent School District funds in Duval County.

It's "hands off" for the State Board of Education, in racial integration of local school districts.

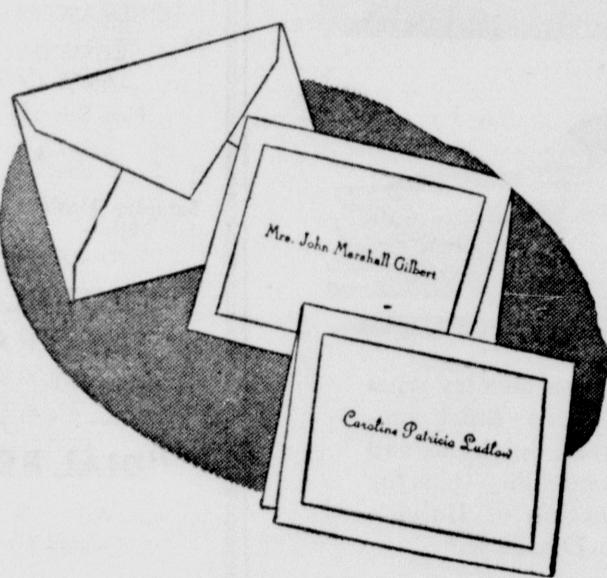

School districts will get their state aid money whether they are segregated or not.

Although offering the assistance of its staff in solving desegregation problems, the board made it clear that no suggestion or direction will be given as to what each school district should

Hamlin Entry in Abilene Little League Tournament Goes Down in First Game

Hamlin's entry in the Abilene area Little League tournament staged first of the week at Abilene, went down in the first round of play—in fact, in the first game of the tournament—before a crew of Dixie League All-Stars from Abilene. Score of the Monday night tilt was 3 to 0.

Hamlin's team was made up of players from the four teams of Little League players that had played outstanding ball in the regular season.

The Dixie victory Monday night was set up in the third inning when Pitcher Corrian of Abilene, first batter in the frame, got on by an error by Hamlin Second Baseman Lorin Shields. Corrian stole second and went to third as Buddy True singled. Bob Cluck walked and stole second. A wild pitch to Batter Loran McGill allowed Cluck to go down, and moments later a bad throw to second admitted Corrian past home plate.

The other two runs came in the fourth inning. Raymond Gray rapped a home run over the left field fence with none on to make it 2 to 0 in favor of the Dixie nine. Shortly thereafter Milk Ragsdale took first on a fielder's choice, moved to second when True singled, took third on a single by Rene Walling, and was forced in on a walk to Cluck.

Hamlin had one opportunity to score, but it faded as Shields, who was on third, was tagged at home plate by Catcher Jim Berrier.

Riddle Descendants Meet at Abilene State Park for Reunion

Mrs. John Ed Day of the Hamlin Flower Shop was in Dallas to attend the forty-second annual Texas State Florists' convention at the Baker Hotel last week.

This year's program included a new type of design school produced by Schoolmaster Marty Swartz of Dallas, and commented by nationally known Tommy Bright of Chicago. The latest styles and supplies to enhance the floral arrangements for sick room, weddings, parties and funerals were shown at the convention and attending florists were informed on newest and best methods.

Descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Riddle of Hamlin and the late Mr. and Mrs. Jim Riddle of Ovalo held their annual reunion last week-end at Abilene State Park. Ninety-two members attended the gathering which has been staged annually for 23 years.

Children of the late C. C. Riddles attending were Mrs. Ham Williams of Tuscola, Arthur Riddle of Lamesa, Frank Riddle of Lubbock, Ralph Riddle, Mrs. C. C. Renfro and Mrs. Ross Fomby, all of Hamlin, and Mrs. Will Downey of Clifton. Their families accompanied them.

Children of the late Jim Riddle of Ovalo present were H. L. Riddle, B. W. Riddle and Virgil Riddle of Ovalo, Mrs. Etta Hawkins of Dallas, Mrs. Paul Copeland of Lawn, and their families. A son, Noah Riddle of Valley Mills, was unable to be present.

Oldest members of the family present were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Holt of Valley Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riddle of Lubbock.
